Havana, August 7 (JIT) -- Rain in the city of Las Tunas prevented the second game of the National Baseball Series playoffs from being played.

Although the workers of the Julio Antonio Mella stadium tried to improve the situation of the field, at 8:00 p.m. on Sunday night it was decided to move the game to Monday, starting at 6:00 p. m.

On Saturday, in the first game of the playoffs for the title between Las Tunas and Industriales, the Leñadores Tuneros won with a score of 7x2.
