

Plans to sabotage Cuban president's visit to the UN organized in the U.S.

Once again, the rapacious claw of those who see the attack on the Cuban government as a business

Illustrative image taken from radiojuvenil.icrt.cu

Havana, August 30 (RHC)-- New information reveals plans from the U.S. to sabotage the attendance of the Cuban head of state, Miguel Díaz-Canel, to the UN General Assembly, where he would attend as representative of the presidency of the G-77 Movement plus China, in September.

The journalistic website Razones de Cuba points out that once again, foreign-based ringleaders and influencers are at the center of the provocations.

Digital correspondence between terrorist Manuel Milanés Pizonero and counterrevolutionary Javier Fernández Negrín, leaked on the channel El Guerrero Cubano, reveals the preparation of actions to "repudiate" the attendance of the Cuban delegation to the international event.

The video reports that the anti-Cuban politician Rosa María Payá will be in charge of articulating the support of "some legislators" to the counterrevolutionary circus, with the support of Luis Almagro, Secretary General of the Organization of American States.

Juan Manuel Cao, Rolando Nápoles, Mario Pentón, Mario Pentón, Liu Santiesteban, Ana Olema and Alexander Otaola will complete the maneuver from the mass media.

The plans include demonstrations against the Cuban delegation, including the possibility of placing a giant screen in a public place with high visibility, to return to common themes of the manipulation of the anti-Cuban sector towards the reality of the Island.

These include, among others, the current economic context of the country, the alleged climate of citizen insecurity, as well as the situation of those arrested for carrying out violent and vandalistic actions during the riots of July 11, 2021.

This attempt ratifies the counterrevolutionary alignment around Payá. His actions are also in line with his actions to assume leadership positions within the counterrevolution based in Europe.

Razones de Cuba reports that the provocateurs are also trying to use the upcoming G77+China Summit, to be held in Havana on September 15 and 16, as a scenario for destabilization actions.

Anti-Cuban senators Bob Menendez and Marco Rubio, with the support of other congressmen and senators known for their belligerent position against Cuba, demanded in letters to Joseph Biden, to prevent the entry of the Cuban leader to the United States.

The new plans are preceded by the attacks due to the presence of the Cuban leader at the EU-CELAC Summit, held last July in Brussels, Belgium.

Razones de Cuba points out that once again the rapacious claw of those who see the attack on the Cuban government as a business is exposed. Their ideals are as false as the concern they claim to profess for the welfare of our people.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/332756-plans-to-sabotage-cuban-presidents-visit-to-the-un-organized-in-the-us>

Radio Habana Cuba