Presidents of Russia and Belarus to meet in Sochi

Havana, Sept 14 (RHC) Russian President Vladimir Putin will meet this Friday in the city of Sochi with his Belarusian counterpart, Aleksander Lukashenko, according to Kremlin spokesman Dmitri Peskov.

Previously, the Pul Perevogo Telegram channel reported that Lukashenko left on a working visit to Russia to meet with Putin on Friday, although it did not specify the location of the meeting.

The date of the consultations was agreed in advance according to the calendar of both presidents. Among the main topics of the negotiations are the international agenda and regional problems, as well as joint economic tasks. (Source: PL)
