

Cuba and Honduras end in a scoreless draw in the Dominican Republic

Santo Domingo, October 13 (PL)-- The teams of Cuba and Honduras ended last night in a draw and goalless in the match corresponding to the third day of the CONCACAF Nations League, it was reported here.

Sports commentators described this match as crucial, agreeing that at stake are the tickets for the quarterfinal round in search of a pass to the Copa America, which will take place in the United States in 2024.

The Honduran team arrived at this eagerly awaited match, which took place at the Félix Sánchez Olympic Stadium, in third place in Group B with three points, behind Cuba and Jamaica, with four points each.

With tonight's draw, neither of the two will advance to the quarterfinals for the time being. Cuba remains in second place in the group, now with four points, and its rival remains in third place with four points, while Jamaica leads with seven points.

The top two teams in this group will advance to the round of the best eight, along with the top teams in Group A and the four pre-qualified teams according to the FIFA ranking: Canada, the United States, Mexico and Costa Rica.

To do so, they will have to wait until next Sunday, when the two teams meet again, this time in Tegucigalpa.

Honduras is followed in Group B by Haiti with three points, Suriname with two and Grenada with one point.

Group A is led by Trinidad with six points, followed by Panama and Guatemala with four points each, Martinique (three) and in the last two positions Curacao and El Salvador with zero points.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/deportes/336411-cuba-and-honduras-end-in-a-scoreless-draw-in-the-dominican-republic>

Radio Habana Cuba