

UN General Assembly to consider Cuba's draft resolution against the blockade on November 1st and 2nd

Havana, October 16 (RHC)-- Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez announced today on his account on the social network X, formerly Twitter, that next November 1st and 2nd, the United Nations General Assembly will consider the draft resolution on the need to end the U.S. blockade against Cuba.

The foreign minister reiterated that the United States ignores calls to eliminate, without conditions, that unilateral, extraterritorial and genocidal policy against Cuba.
