

CAIR calls for hate crime probe in Ohio car ramming

Cleveland, October 26 (RHC)-- In the U.S. city of Cleveland, Ohio, the Council on American-Islamic Relations, or CAIR, is calling for a car ramming of a Palestinian American man to be investigated as a hate crime.

The 20-year-old victim has been hospitalized. The driver reportedly shouted "Kill all Palestinians" and "Long live Israel" before hitting him with his car.
