

Cristian Nápoles: Stronger and more ambitious in his resurrection

Santiago de Chile, October 31 (RHC) - Everyone wants a photo with him. Whether they recognize him or not, his charisma and picturesque image attract the crowd. Moreover, on his uniform you can read the name of Cuba and adorned with a beautiful tricolor flag, respected and admired by millions.

But he is also an admirable athlete, ambitious, a warrior, fruit of the triple CUBAN school. Cristian Napoles is an example of perseverance, one of those who never gives up.

Three times world finalist with only 24 years old. He was away for a year and a half for reasons beyond his control, but he came back stronger and is still among the elite. His mental strength is superhuman.

At the helm of his father, Juan Gualberto Nápoles, he won a bronze in Budapest, which was covered in several press media and was decorated with 17.40m, his personal best in the open air. The family's happiness was enormous, life was giving them both a rematch. His father had also left the Cuban athletics team, dissatisfied with certain procedures.

Now in Chile he longs to get back on the podium. His goal is another double for the triple, as in Budapest, well, similar, now they are proposing gold and silver, it is necessary to ratify the mastery of the respected Cuban school. The staging will be next Friday. The protagonists This year's world runner-up Lázaro Martínez and the warrior Cristian Nápoles.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/deportes/337960-cristian-napoles-stronger-and-more-ambitious-in-his-resurrection>

Radio Habana Cuba