National Caribbean Day on the last day of the Havana International Fair

Havana, Nov 10 (RHC) National Caribbean Day this Friday will end the 39th Havana International Fair, which since last Monday brings together the Cuban business community and exhibitors from more than 60 foreign companies.

The Caribbean region will present its new products in Pavilion number seven, while the Trinidad and Tobago business forum will take place with the Cuban Chamber of Commerce.

This day includes the international meeting of regulatory authorities and certification bodies; the presentation on the internationalization of services; Desoff's work for exports in the information and communication technologies area; among other topics.

The awards ceremony will take place at four in the afternoon. On Saturday, the fairgrounds will be open to the public. (Source: ACN)
