Los Angeles, November 22 (RHC)-- In Hollywood, the United Talent Agency has stopped representing Oscar winner Susan Sarandon after she spoke at a rally in New York City last week, where she called for a ceasefire in Gaza.

Sarandon has been active at antiwar protests to demand the protection of Palestinian lives. She addressed a rally calling for an end to Israel's war crimes: "You don't have to be Palestinian to stand with the Palestinian people. You do not have to be Palestinian to understand that the slaughter of almost 5,000 children is unacceptable and a war crime."
