

Cuba's top leadership accompanies youth march in solidarity with Palestine

Havana, November 23 (RHC) -- The First Secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba and President of the Republic, Miguel Díaz-Canel, and Prime Minister Manuel Marrero Cruz accompanied the Cuban people on Thursday in the march in solidarity with Palestine.

From G Street and Malecon to La Piragua, the Cuban people join once again the international community demanding the cessation of Israeli attacks on the sister Arab nation.

In front of the U.S. embassy, promoter of the genocide, young Palestinians and Cubans also show their repudiation for the abominable crimes of Tel Aviv against the civilian population.

Convened by the Union of Young Communists, various organizations of the country such as the University Student Federation and the Federation of High School Students marched in repudiation of the genocide taking place in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank since last October 7.
