

Sports Convention opens its doors on Monday

Havana, November 27 (Jit) - The president of INDER, Osvaldo Vento Montiller, delivers the inaugural speech at the 10th International Convention on Physical Activity and Sports (Afide 2023), which opens its doors this Monday at the Convention Palace in Havana.

The speech is entitled Physical Activity and Sustainable Sports, Role in the Human Development of the Cuban Population, and will be delivered in the main hall of the Havana venue in front of hundreds of delegates and guests.

The initial day will be long and full of debates, including the interventions of ministers and foreign authorities present in Havana for this academic event.

Six other halls of the Palace will host topics of notable interest, which JIT summarizes in the following lines...

- . I International Weightlifting and Powerlifting Event.
- . Plenary session on public policies .

- . II International Symposium on Science and Sport.
- . IV International Workshop Psychology in Physical Activity and Sport.
- . I International Symposium on Associated Soccer.
- . Students meeting.

WE RECOMMEND

- . Speech by the President of the International Weightlifting Federation.
- . Ethics and rules in the Olympic system. By Eng. José Quiñonez González, Peru.
- . The use of artificial intelligence in the sciences applied to sport: advances in anthropometry for high performance. By Ms. C. Everardo Manuel Sánchez Puche.
- . Identification, selection and development of talents in soccer. By Dr. C. Hugo Miguel Borges Sarmento, from Portugal.
- . Main results of research on social inclusion, non-discrimination and violence in the sports system.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/deportes/340511-sports-convention-opens-its-doors-on-monday>

Radio Habana Cuba