

Only 50 aid trucks entered Gaza and 7 injured people crossed into Egypt through Rafah on Tuesday

Rafah, December 6 (RHC)-- Only fifty trucks carrying humanitarian aid entered Gaza through the Rafah crossing Tuesday, including two trucks specifically carrying fuel, according to an Egyptian official. Before the October 7 attack, about 455 aid trucks were crossing into the area each day, according to the United Nations.

Meanwhile, seven injured Palestinians, along with seven accompanying individuals, have crossed into Egypt to receive medical treatment, as observed by a journalist at the Rafah crossing.
