

*Important economic issues discussed at final 2023 Plenary
Session of the Provincial Party Committee in Cienfuegos*

By Mireya Ojeda Cabrera

Cienfuegos, December 29 (RHC)-- Economic results and the progress of the banking reform process were relevant issues discussed by the last 2023 plenary session of the Party Committee in this province led by the member of the Central Committee and its First Secretary, Marydé Fernández López.

In a satisfactory way, the Cienfuegos people culminate the commitments in the economy, with net sales, which exceed 104 percent of compliance, not counting the Refinery and reaching more than 90 percent in profits.

They estimate to close the year with 15 agencies in productions for export and 66 offers of goods and lines of services, superior to last year, including compliance in values highlighting the planned NO's of: Crushed stone, Sand benefited, Naphtha component, Lead scrap, Steel and Electronics, Dehydrated Pineapple Leaf and other services.

Almost 200 new economic actors are working, among private and state-owned MSMEs and non-agricultural cooperatives, while Work and Wages show a strategy of growth, and in the social activity they benefit thousands of protected people, including mothers with three or more children under 17 years of age and pregnant women evaluated as insolvent.

The member of the Provincial Party Bureau, Lázara Suárez Argudín explained the progress of the banking process, which involves society, using electronic means for the benefit of the Cuban and Cienfuegos economy for more security, comfort, speed, transparency and savings.

Maridé Fernández López congratulated the people on the 65th Anniversary of the Triumph of the Revolution.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/343281-important-economic-issues-discussed-at-final-2023-plenary-session-of-the-provincial-party-committee-in-cienfuegos>

Radio Habana Cuba