Washington, January 13 (RHC)-- The Intercept has obtained documents suggesting the U.S. Air Force sent officers to Israel in November to help provide intelligence, including satellite data, to help Israel pick targets to bomb in Gaza.

The document from November 21st references the deployment of an Air Defense Liaison Team to Israel. Craig Mokhiber, a former U.N. official who resigned over the war in Gaza, said The Intercept's report is "more evidence of U.S. complicity in genocide."
