

Indiana University cancels exhibition by prominent Palestinian artist Samia Halaby

Image not found or type unknown

A large, thick gray 'X' is drawn over a white square area. The 'X' is composed of two diagonal lines that intersect in the center. The square is defined by a thin gray border. The 'X' is slightly offset from the corners of the square, leaving a small margin.

Indianapolis, January 17 (RHC)-- In the latest crackdown by U.S. colleges on Palestinian voices, Indiana University canceled the first U.S. retrospective of renowned artist Samia Halaby.

Halaby, who is an Indiana University graduate, was informed that her social media posts on the Israeli assault, expressing solidarity with Gazans under attack, was the reason for the cancellation. The exhibition had been in the works for over three years.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/344727-indiana-university-cancels-exhibition-by-prominent-palestinian-artist-samia-halaby>

Radio Habana Cuba