

Matanzas and Artemisa resume Elite Baseball League today

Havana, January 19 (RHC) - The grand finale of the II Elite League of Cuban baseball will resume this Friday at the 26 de Julio stadium in Artemisa, with the third duel between the Artemisa Hunters and the Matanzas Crocodiles.

As confirmed by the mentors of both teams, the starting pitchers will be Albert Valladares (Artemisa) and Yadian Martinez (Matanzas).

The series is tied at one win per side, after the division of honors in the first two games, played at the Victoria de Girón stadium in Matanzas.

Yulieski González, helmsman of the Cazadores de Artemisa, confirmed to the press that the star of the Softbank Falcons in the Japan League, Livan Moinelo, has only one outing left in the final, since he will travel to Japan on the 22nd to rejoin his club.

Moinelo has been one of the mainstays of the Hunters in the playoff for the crown and will not be able to pitch this Friday in the third game due to pitching regulations, but he could pitch in the fourth game.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/deportes/344893-matanzas-and-artemisa-resume-elite-baseball-league-today>

Radio Habana Cuba