

Cuba and Hungary sign cooperation agreement

Havana, February 2 (RHC) A Cooperation Agreement between the Office of the National Assembly of Hungary and the Secretariat of the Cuban Parliament was signed this Friday at the National Capitol.

The Assembly reported on its X profile that the signing of the agreement will contribute to the expansion of bilateral relations between both nations.

On the same social network, Parliament published images of the meeting, in which Ana María Mari Machado and Homero Acosta Álvarez, vice president and secretary of the National Assembly of People's Power, participated.

The Hungarian delegation, headed by György Such, general director of the Hungarian National Assembly, began a working visit to Cuba this Wednesday to strengthen interparliamentary ties. (Source: ACN)
