

Chelsea Manning Sues Pentagon for Denial of Gender Transition Care

Leavenworth, September 25 (RHC)-- U.S. Army whistleblower Chelsea Manning, previously known as Bradley, is suing the Pentagon for failing to treat her gender transition.

One year ago, Manning announced she identified as a woman and planned to seek hormone replacement treatment. Earlier this week, the American Civil Liberties Union followed through on a vow to sue the Pentagon for denying gender-transition medical care and failing to follow other protocols for treating gender dysphoria.
