Havana, February 29 (RHC)-- Cuban President Miguel Diaz-Canel reiterated today the call to the people of the island to participate in the world mobilization in support of Palestine on Saturday, March 2nd.

Through his account in X, the president said that in all provinces and in Havana they will take to the streets in solidarity with that brotherly people and to condemn the holocaust that Israel intends to provoke in Rafah.

The day before, Cuban youth and social organizations called for a massive march in solidarity with the Levantine nation and the stage in this capital will be the José Martí Anti-Imperialist Tribune, located in front of the US embassy, a government that has vetoed the ceasefire and the possibility of putting an end to this world holocaust.

Representatives of the Union of Young Communists, the Federation of Cuban Women and the Federation of High School Students recalled that for months the world has been witnessing a great massacre against the Palestinian people. (Source:Prensa Latina)
