

Activists surround Israeli Embassy in Washington, DC with Palestinian flags and banners

Image not found or type unknown

Washington, March 7 (RHC)-- In Washington, DC, activists have set up a protest in front of the Israeli Embassy. Israeli American activist Miko Peled says the protest has disrupted embassy business, and is calling on more people to join the action until the embassy is forced to shut down.

Miko Peled, the son of a famous Israel general, told reporters in the U.S. capital: "Palestinian flags have clearly taken over the other flag that's being flown here. The flag of hope has clearly taken over the flag of hate and apartheid. This is the apartheid embassy. And look at all this. Just brilliant, as far as the eye can see."

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/349172-activists-surround-israeli-embassy-in-washington-dc-with-palestinian-flags-and-banners>

Radio Habana Cuba