

Cuban prime minister wishes success to women delegates at FMC Congress

Havana, March 7 (RHC)-- Member of the Political Bureau of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba (CC-PCC) and Prime Minister Manuel Marrero Cruz wished success to the Cuban federates in the celebration of their 11th Congress, which began Thursday in the country's capital.

"We wish you a successful day, of deep debates, in tune with our times. You, Cuban women, are victors of the impossible," said the head of government in his profile on the social network X, and accompanied the message with the hashtag vencedoras de imposibles (victors of the impossible).

On the same platform, Roberto Morales Ojeda, Secretary of Organization of the CC-PCC highlighted the sacrifice and dedication of the women of the Revolution.

The event, which will be held until tomorrow at the Havana Convention Palace, is dedicated to the legacy of Commander-in-Chief Fidel Castro Ruz, to Vilma Espín Guillois, eternal president of the Federation of Cuban Women (FMC), to Mariana Grajales, the Mother of the Homeland, 130 years after her death, and to the 65th anniversary of the Revolution.

The event welcomes 323 delegates under the slogan "Cuban women, conquerors of the impossible", who will participate in colloquiums, exhibitions, fairs, meetings of entrepreneurs, training workshops and other activities that contribute to the knowledge and improvement of women in the country.
