

Columbia University in New York City sued for banning pro-Palestinian student groups

Image not found or type unknown

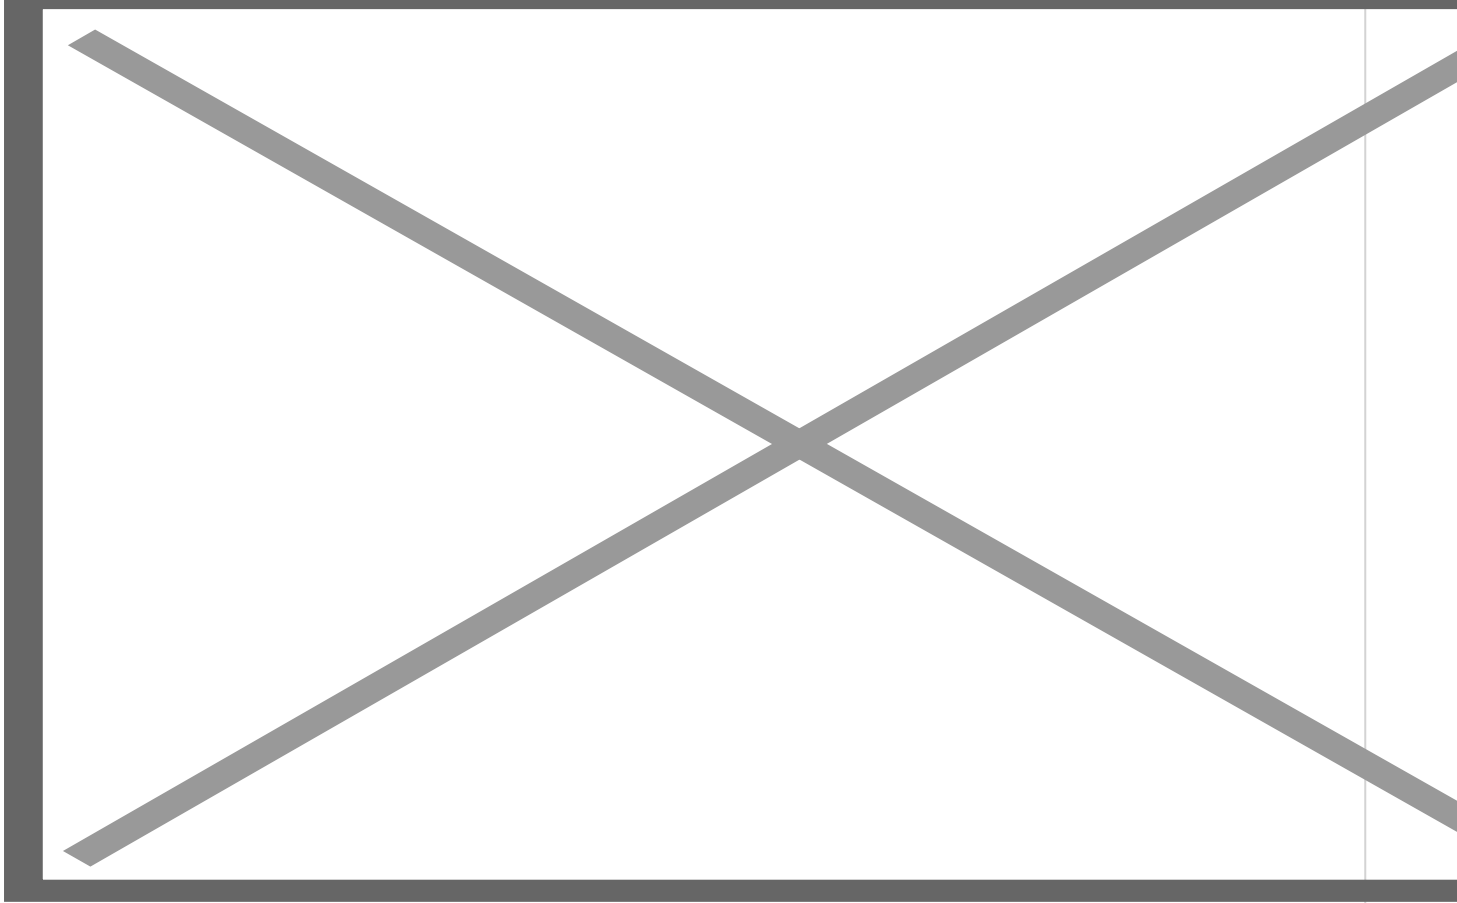

Image Credit: Columbia Students for Justice in Palestine

New York, March 13 (RHC)-- The New York Civil Liberties Union and Palestine Legal have filed a lawsuit against Columbia University for suspending two pro-Palestine student groups, Students for Justice in Palestine and Jewish Voice for Peace.

The groups were suspended last November after organizing peaceful protests against Israel's occupation and war on Gaza.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/349626-columbia-university-in-new-york-city-sued-for-banning-pro-palestinian-student-groups>

Radio Habana Cuba