

Ciego de Avila Tigres don't want to drop from the top and Gallos of Santi Spiritus to leave bad streak in Cuban baseball

Havana, March 30 (RHC)-- The fourth particular confrontations of the 63rd National Baseball Series, the main spectacle of this sport in Cuba, resume today.

At the Jose Ramon Cepero Stadium, the Tigres de Ciego de Avila, leaders of the championship, will try to continue taking advantage of the bad moment of the Gallos de Santi Spíritus.

At the Mártires de Barbados de Granma, the Alazanes will try to repeat their success against the Toros de Camagüey, who in their last game broke a streak of 10 wins in a row.

The Huracanes de Mayabeque will move from their Nelson Fernandez headquarters to receive the Leones de Industriales at November 8, with the series 2-1 in favor of the latter.

For their part, the Cocodrilos de Matanzas will try to continue accumulating success as visitors at the Augusto César Sandino, in Villa Clara.

At the 5 de Septiembre, the Cienfuegos Elefantos will try to tie their match with the Cazadores de Artemisa.

Meanwhile, at the Nguyen Van Troi Stadium, the Indios de Guantanamo want to continue taking advantage of their series against the Cachorros de Holguín.

Finally, at the Capitán San Luis de Pinar del Río, the Vegueros will try to even their match against the Avispas de Santiago de Cuba.

Precisely, both teams played this Friday the game that was suspended due to rain a day before, culminating with a victory for the Santiago de Cuba Avispas (8-4). Osvaldo Acuña was the winner, with a save for Reynaldo Álvarez and a loss for Mario Valle.

Orlando Veranes (6-4, 2CI) and Yoelkis Guibert (3-2, 1Hr, 3CI) were outstanding for the winners. Meanwhile, Alexei Ramirez knocked it out of the park for the Pinareños.

As we have previously reported, the duel between the reigning national champions Leñadores de Las Tunas and the Piratas de la Isla was suspended due to transportation difficulties.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/deportes/350974-ciego-de-avilatigres-dont-want-to-drop-from-the-top-and-gallos-of-santi-spiritus-to-leave-bad-streak-in-cuban-baseball>

Radio Habana Cuba