Havana, May 26 (RHC) -- The Foreign Minister of Cuba, Bruno Rodríguez, celebrated the signing of the Agreement on the Development of the Process of Society Participation in the Construction of Peace in Colombia.

In his account on X, Cuba's top diplomat pointed out that both organizations announced the signing of the first point on Mexico's agenda. Agreement No. 28 includes social participation in the peace process.

"Peace in Colombia requires all voices, all peoples, communities, people, processes and ways of building a nation," states the document signed by the parties. (Source: Prensa Latina)
