

Palestine Red Crescent mourns 30th worker killed in Israeli attacks

Issam Rouhi Mohammed Aqel, assassinated by Israeli air strike

Ramallah, May 29 (RHC)-- The Palestine Red Crescent (PRCS) is mourning another aid worker killed in Israeli attacks. The humanitarian group said Issam Rouhi Mohammed Aqel, a member of its staff who worked at the al-Aqsa Martyrs Hospital, was killed in an Israeli air raid that hit his home in the Bureij refugee camp in central Gaza.

“This brings the total number of martyrs among the PRCS’s staff to 30, of whom 17 were killed while performing their humanitarian duty,” the group said in a post on X.
