An African listener tunes in to Radio Havana Cuba on his shortwave radio

Lots of people ask us how they can "tune-in" to Radio Havana Cuba if they don't have a shortwave radio.

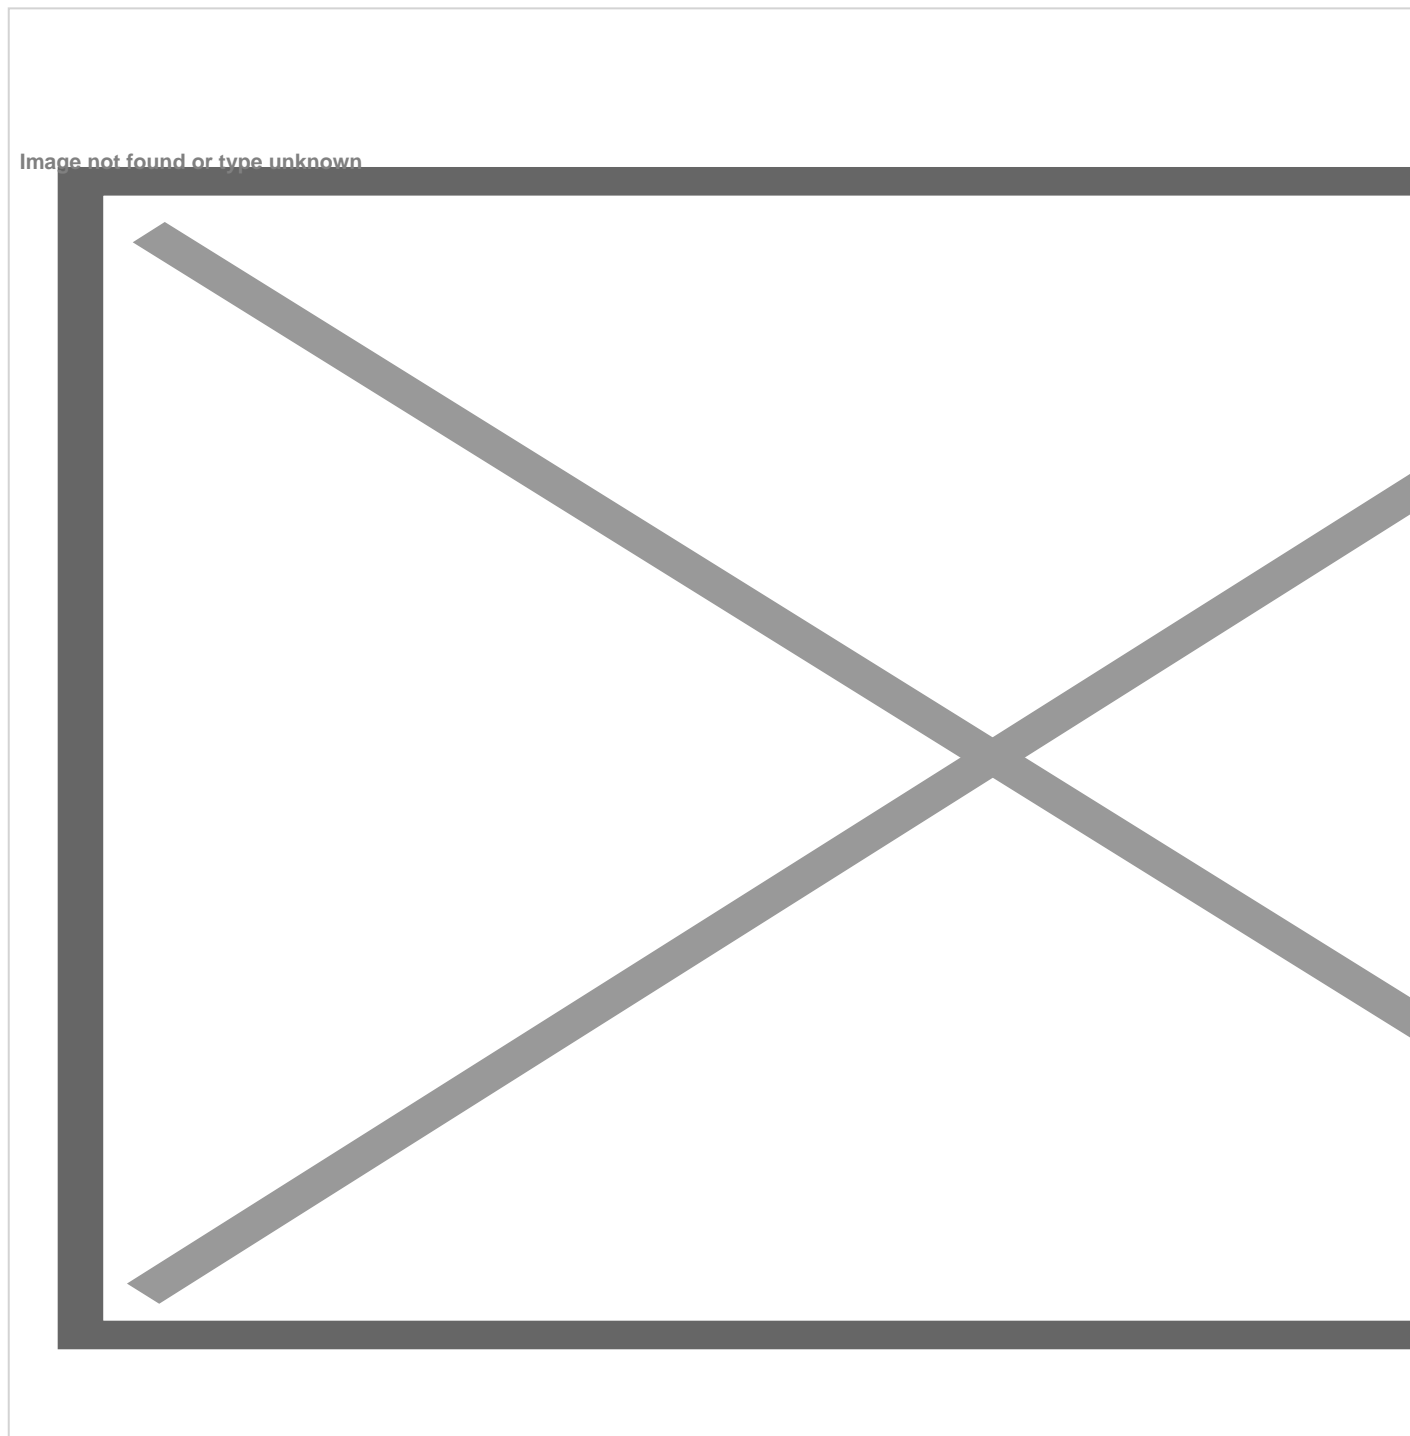

Or maybe reception in your area isn't all that good, due to atmospheric conditions or interference.

Well... it's really quite simple to hear our programs on Radio Havana Cuba. We're streaming live audio on the internet.

Just go to our web site: radiohc.cu/en.

You'll see a little blue box that says "Escúchanos en VIVO." In English, that means: "Listen to us LIVE."

Just click on that box, and we'll come popping out of your speakers.

Radio Havana Cuba transmits 24 hours a day / 7 days a week on the Internet. We broadcast in Spanish, English, French, Portuguese, Creole and Esperanto.

Our English-language transmission can be heard from 3 to 4 p.m. (EDT) every day of the week (Saturdays and Sundays, too!).
