

Leaders against third parties and classic of classics, the most interesting in the SNB

By Orlando Gonzalez Cruz

Havana, June 11 (RHC)-- This Monday was a rest day in the 63rd National Baseball Series, although the Hurricanes of Mayabeque and the Azucareros of Villa Clara played their pending match. The Mayabequenses achieved an important 8-5 victory. The game was won by Jaime Gámez, César Morales lost and Duvier Peña scored the rescue. Jeison Martínez and Frank Alfonso stood out at bat with two and three RBIs respectively, while for the losers, Leonardo Montero compiled four-four.

Today new subseries begin, highlighting the duel between the championship leaders, Vegueros de Pinar del Río, and the third in the table, Alazanes de Granma, who are only one game ahead of the westernmost teams. The duel will take place at the Capitán San Luis stadium, headquarters of the Vegueros.

Another match that arouses the interest of fans is the one that will take place in the Latin American stadium in the capital, with the classic of Cuban baseball classics, Leones de Industriales against the Avispas from Santiago.

On the other hand, in Cándido González de Camagüey, the Matanzas Crocodiles visit the Bulls.

On July 26 of Artemisa, the Cazadores receive the national champions, Leñadores de Las Tunas.

At the Augusto César Sandino, in Villa Clara, the Azucareros will try to take advantage of their commitment against the Elefantes de Cienfuegos.

The Guantánamo Indians will play against the Island Pirates on neutral ground, the Nelson Fernández stadium in Mayabeque, as both cannot be moved to the Island. Meanwhile, the Mayabeque Hurricanes will face the Ciego de Ávila Tigers at the José Ramon Cepero.

Finally, at the Mayor General Calixto García stadium, the home team, Cachorros de Holguín, and the Gallos de Sancti Spiritus will be rivals.
