Belgian prime minister resigns after far-right victory in EU elections

Image not found or type unknown

Brussels, June 12 (RHC)-- Belgium's prime minister has formally resigned following a surge of support for far-right candidates on Sunday, when Belgian voters cast ballots in general, regional and European elections.

The right-wing anti-immigrant New Flemish Alliance will lead negotiations to form a coalition government. This came as part of a wave of gains by Eurosceptic and far-right parties in EU elections over the weekend.

Radio Habana Cuba