

*Cuban prime minister congratulates Prensa
Latina on its 65th anniversary*

Havana, June 16 (RHC) -- Cuban Prime Minister Manuel Marrero gas urged Prensa Latina to continue serving the truth and in defense of the people, on the occasion of celebrating today the 65th anniversary of its foundation.

Marrero congratulated the group of the Latin American Information Agency Prensa Latina (PL) on the social network, Previously, the president of the National Assembly of People's Power of Cuba (parliament), Esteban Lazo, congratulated Prensa Latina for reaching six and a half decades of life.

Lazo recognized the fidelity of its professionals to the legacy of the historical leader of the Cuban Revolution, Fidel Castro, and the Argentine-Cuban guerrilla Ernesto Che Guevara, who were its main promoters.

At the celebration event for the date, held on Friday, the president of Prensa Latina, Luis Enrique González, assured that PL fights battles against disinformation, in the midst of media campaigns by communication monopolies, intelligence organizations and governments. interested in silencing her.

To fulfill his mission, the media outlet has correspondents in 35 countries, collaborators in dozens of nations and agreements with more than 100 international media outlets. It overcomes various obstacles daily, thanks to the creative intelligence of its professionals, González noted. (Source: Prensa Latina)

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/357550-cuban-prime-minister-congratulates-prensa-latina-on-its-65th-anniversary>

Radio Habana Cuba