

20,000 Gazan children are unaccounted for, at least 4,000 buried under the rubble

Geneva, June 25 (RHC)-- The aid group Save the Children is estimating over 20,000 Palestinian children have gone missing during Israel's war on Gaza, with thousands separated from relatives or buried under the rubble.

Alexandra Saieh of Save the Children told reporters: “What we know is that at least 17,000 children are estimated to be unaccompanied or separated from surviving family members, and at least 4,000 children are likely to be buried under the rubble.”
