

Heavy clashes reported as Israeli military storms Nablus

Gaza City, June 29 (RHC)-- There is ongoing heavy fighting in the Nablus area after the Israeli military stormed the occupied West Bank city on Friday. The Al-Aqsa Martyrs Brigades in Nablus said its fighters were using “machineguns and explosive devices” during “fierce clashes” with Israeli forces in the al-Makhfiyeh neighbourhood.

Israeli soldiers have also raided the home of journalist Moaz Sharida in the city of Nablus, while Israeli military vehicles have been attacked with Molotov cocktails during their storming of the town of Sebastia, northwest of Nablus.

The Israeli military has also stormed several towns in the Jenin area, including al-Fandaqumiya, Silat ad-Dhahr, and Qabatiya, where clashes have also been reported with Palestinians.
