A smiling Joe Biden welcomes war criminal Benjamin Netanyahu to the White House for a friendly chat

Washington, July 25 (RHC)-- Benjamin Netanyahu has met U.S. President Joe Biden at the White House, a day after the Israeli crime minister delivered what many media have called "a fiery speech" to a joint session of the U.S. Congress.

Netanyahu also meets with Vice-President Kamala Harris, the presumptive Democratic nominee for president.
In brief remarks after the meeting, Netanyahu told reporters said he had known Biden for 40 years - and that the president has known every Israeli prime minister for five decades.

During yesterday's speech before the Congress, the war criminal said: "From a proud Jewish Zionist to a proud Irish-American Zionist, I want to thank you [Joe Biden] for 50 years of public service."

Netanyahu also said he looked forward to working "on the great issues before us" with Biden over the next several months, obviously referring to the genocidal war of aggression against Gaza and the taks of ethnic-cleansing in occupied Palestinian territories.

Netanyahu is expected to visit Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump at his Mar-a-Lago residence in Florida on Friday.

---

https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/361061-a-smiling-joe-biden-welcomes-war-criminal-benjamin-netanyahu-to-the-white-house-for-a-friendly-chat

Radio Habana Cuba