Caracas, July 27 (RHC)-- The National Institute of Civil Aeronautics (INAC) Venezuela denied this Friday the information that published in his account X President of Panama José Raúl Mulino on the alleged closure of Venezuelan airspace, and was replicated by various media outlets that respond to the extreme right-wing discourse and seek to support destabilization in Venezuela.

Through a message on its X social network account, the Venezuelan agency confirmed that the air operations are proceeding normally.

“The Venezuelan Aeronautical Authority confirms that air operations are being carried out as normal. Currently, the Flight Radar can see all three flights of Copa Airlines operating in Venezuela’s airspace”, said INAC.

“It is intended, with biased reports through social networks, To thin the electoral climate and disrupt in an orchestrated way the image of the #FANB and the impeccable execution of the #PlanRepublic. The #FANB is supported by its mystique, ethics and professionalism. They will not be able!”, denounced on this day the Minister of Defense, Vladimir Padrino.
