

Marrero congratulates the Cubadebate collective

21st Anniversary of Cubadebate. Image: X

Havana, August 6 (RHC)-- The Prime Minister of Cuba, Manuel Marrero, sent a congratulatory message through his account on X, to the workers of Cubadebate for the 21st anniversary of its founding.

"An embrace for the Cubadebate collective... Never stop defending our Homeland from hostilities and enemy aggression," wrote the Cuban leader on the social network.

The Cubadebate website was officially inaugurated on August 5, 2003 at the International Press Center in Havana.

The Cuban prime minister said: "Cubadebate celebrates 21 years working for truth and ideas. As leaders in media communication, we continue to bet on innovation in the country's public media system.

Congratulations to the creators -- very talented and committed young people.

Radio Habana Cuba