

University of Chicago delivers diplomas and drops cases against Gaza solidarity student protesters

Image not found or type unknown

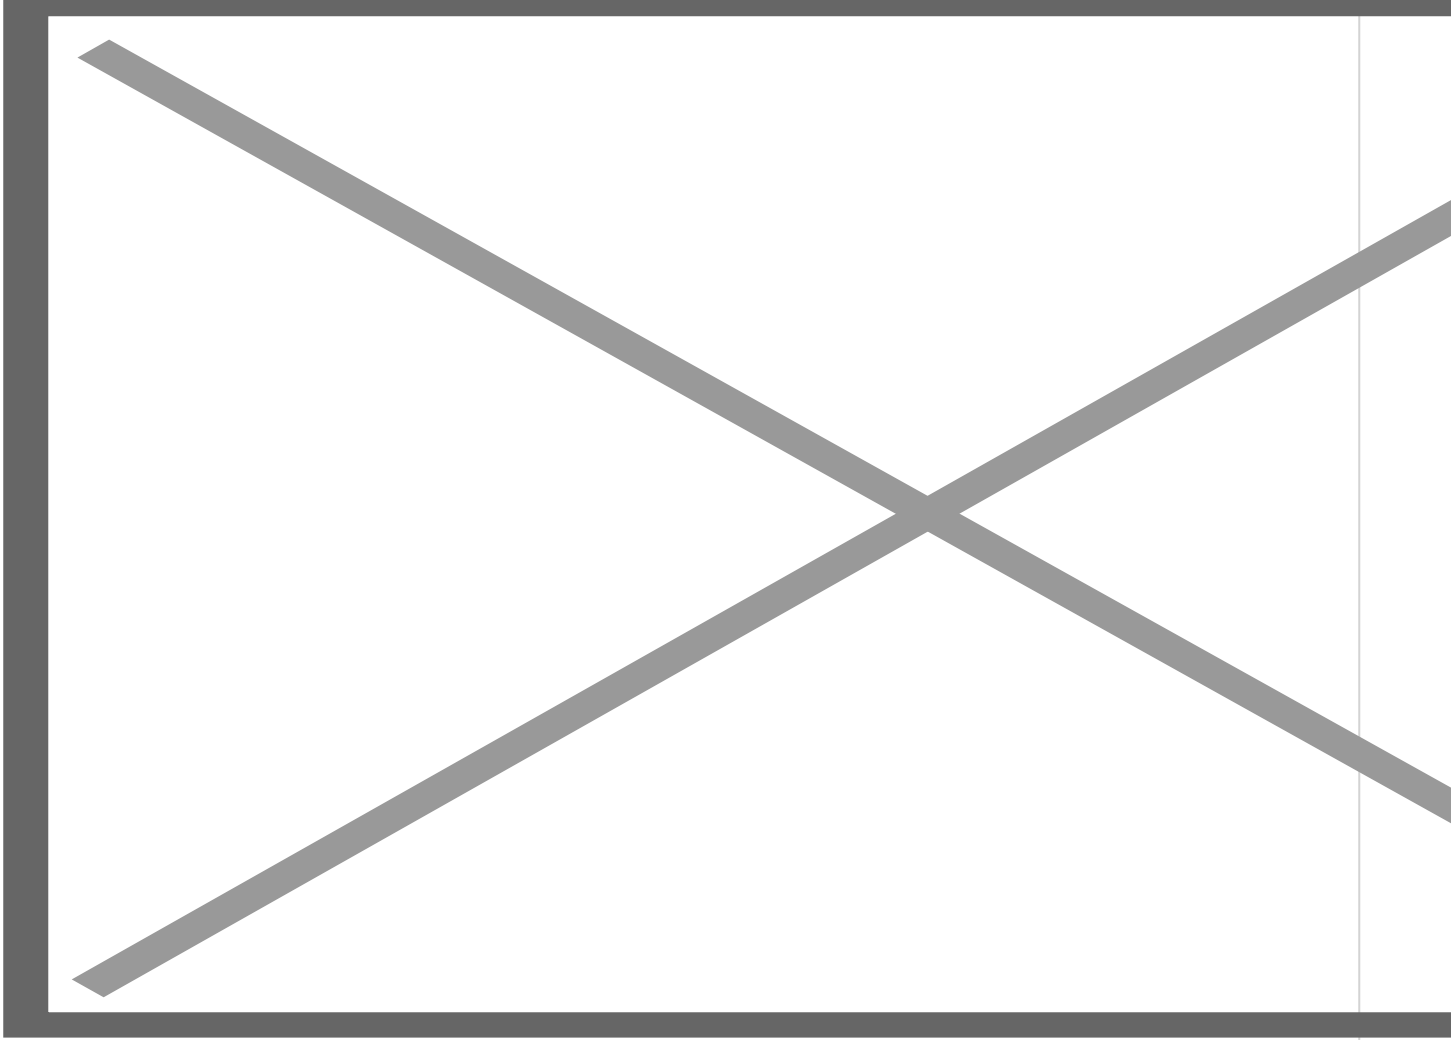

Image Credit: Sofia Suriel

Chicago, August 15 (RHC)-- In the U.S., five University of Chicago graduates who participated in Palestinian rights protests finally received their diplomas more than two months after graduation.

The five graduates were notified that the disciplinary cases against them had been dropped. The students were never told why they were the subject of disciplinary cases.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/362892-university-of-chicago-delivers-diplomas-and-drops-cases-against-gaza-solidarity-student-protesters>

Radio Habana Cuba