

Cuba falls to Canada in Norceca Final Six volleyball tournament (m)

Final Six Tournament

Havana, Aug 24 (ACN) The Cuban men's volleyball team lost 0-3 to the Dominican Republic in the North, Central America and Caribbean (Norceca) Final Six Tournament, held in Gatineau, Quebec.

For the Dominicans, Héctor Alexis Cruz was outstanding with 25 points, while for Cuba, Thiago Suárez (16) and Víctor Andreu (15) stood out.

In another match, Puerto Rico defeated Mexico 3-1.

Mexico, in 2021, Cuba (2022) and the United States (2023) are the owners of the three titles in the editions held so far, in all cases followed by Canada, while the Americans have two bronze medals (2021 and 2022), and the Mexicans hold the bronze medal in 2023.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/deportes/363626-cuba-falls-to-canada-in-norceca-final-six-volleyball-tournament-m>

Radio Habana Cuba