

Cuba present at 6th BRICS Municipal Forum in Russia

Image not found or type unknown

The Cuban delegation is participating in teh Block in Culture, Sports and Tourism

Havana, August 29 (RHC) A delegation from the Office of the Historian of the city of Havana participates as a guest in the 6th International Municipal Forum of the Brics 2024, organized by the government of Moscow.

According to Perla Rosales, deputy general director of the Office of the Historian of Havana, the delegation's mission is to take advantage of the platform for the exchange of experiences between BRICS representatives, hence its participation in the Block on Culture, Sports and Tourism.

Since last August 27, the Russian capital has hosted the 6th International Municipal Forum of BRICS members, where five thousand representatives from more than 126 countries participate, with the aim of exchanging experiences on the eve of the BRICS summit to be held in Kazan in October. (Source: PL)

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/363980-cuba-present-at-6th-brics-municipal-forum-in-russia>

Radio Habana Cuba