

Republican former vice president Dick Cheney says he will vote for Kamala Harris

Washington, September 7 (RHC)-- Former U.S. Vice President Dick Cheney, a lifelong right-wing Republican, has said he will vote for Democratic nominee Kamala Harris in the November 5 presidential election.

“In our nation’s 248-year history, there has never been an individual who is a greater threat to our republic than Donald Trump,” Cheney said of the Republican contender and former U.S. president.

A hard-core reactionary, Dick Cheney, who served as vice president under President George W Bush from 2001 to 2009 -- and which no one can claim is progressive -- confirmed his endorsement of Harris in a statement on Friday and said Trump “can never be trusted with power again.”

“He [Trump] tried to steal the last election using lies and violence to keep himself in power after the voters had rejected him,” Cheney said. “As citizens, we each have a duty to put country above partisanship to defend our Constitution. That is why I will be casting my vote for Vice President Kamala Harris,” he added.

His daughter Liz Cheney, a former Republican member of Congress from Wyoming, endorsed Harris on Wednesday.

Liz Cheney became a fierce critic of Trump after thousands of his supporters stormed the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021, in an effort to overturn his election defeat. She co-chaired a congressional investigation into the assault.

Trump responded on his Truth Social platform on Friday by calling the Cheneys “irrelevant RINO” -- using a term he applies to Republicans not loyal to him, which stands for “Republicans in Name Only.”

Jen O’Malley Dillon, Harris’s campaign chair, said: “The vice president is proud to have the support of Vice President Cheney, and deeply respects his courage to put country over party.”

Several other top Republicans have come out in support of Harris while some, including Senator Mitt Romney and former Vice President Mike Pence, say they would not be voting for Trump.
