Demonstrations called for September 27th when Benjamin Netanyahu is slated to speak before the United Nations General Assembly / Poster issued by CODE PINK

On Friday, September 27th, Benjamin Netanyahu is slated to travel to New York City and address the United Nations General Assembly.

A coalition of organizations led by The People's Forum is calling for a mass protest, issuing the statement: "The people of New York won't let a war criminal carrying out a genocide against the Palestinian people peacefully walk the streets of our city."

"We say: Arrest Netanyahu for genocide and crimes against humanity!"

Demonstrators plan to protest against the visit of the war criminal to the very building where his country, Israel, has refused to abide by UN resolutions and respect International Law.
