Havana, Sep 11 (ACN) Cuba will defend its title in the sixth Caribbean Cup to be held in the Bahamas, officially announced by the Bahamas Baseball Association and the Caribbean Baseball Confederation (COCABE).

Scheduled to take place from October 23 to 28 for the second time at the Andre Rodgers Stadium, in addition to the reigning Cuban champions, a total of five other teams have already confirmed their participation.

They are Curacao (silver 2023), U.S. Virgin Islands, Sint Maarten (debutant), Dominican Republic (champion in the first two editions) and the hosts Bahamas (fourth in 2022).

In the last 2023 version, the Caribbean's largest island nation defeated Curaçao 3-1 in the final and broke a streak of eight years without winning a title in a multi-select baseball event.

According to reports, COCABE announced that the 2025 Caribbean Cup will be a qualifier for the 2026 Central American and Caribbean Games in Santo Domingo.
