

North Carolina Republican candidate for governor praised slavery and declared himself a Black Nazi

Image not found or type unknown

Image Credit: USA Today Network via Reuters Connect

Winston Salem, September 21 (RHC)-- North Carolina Lieutenant Governor Mark Robinson, a Trump-supported, trans-bashing Republican gubernatorial candidate, referred to himself as a “Black NAZI!” and expressed support for reinstating slavery.

That’s according to CNN, which reports Robinson made the remarks over a decade ago on “Nude Africa,” a pornographic website.

CNN also found Robinson called Martin Luther King Jr. “worse than a maggot,” repeatedly used antisemitic and anti-Muslim slurs, and said he enjoyed watching transgender pornography. Robinson has a long history of backing anti-transgender legislation.

Despite the backlash from the CNN report, Robinson has vowed to remain in the race.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/365634-north-carolina-republican-candidate-for-governor-praised-slavery-and-declared-himself-a-black-nazi>

Radio Habana Cuba