

Donald Trump tells campaign event: We're gonna make Israel great again

Washington, September 21 (RHC)-- Former U.S. President Donald Trump and the Republican candidate for his 'Second Coming,' has said: "We're gonna make Israel great again."

The Donald spoke at length about the relationship between the United States and Israel at an event hosted by his campaign for the November 2024 presidential election on Thursday in Washington, DC.

“We’re going to make Israel great again,” Trump said, adding that he’s the “most popular person in Israel” and “could run for Prime Minister.”

“Would you like me as your prime minister?” he asked the crowd at the event in Washington, DC.

Trump also spoke about his record of supporting Israel during his presidency, including the U.S. recognizing Jerusalem as Israel’s capital and Israel’s sovereignty over the occupied Golan Heights.

He also said he had been told the “best thing” he had done for Israel was terminating the Iran nuclear deal, describing the 2015 agreement as “the worst deal ever made for Israel.”

Donald Trump has a street named after him in the Occupied Palestinian territories. "The Donald J.Trump Street."
