

U.S. Special Counsel files sealed brief on Donald Trump's efforts to overturn the 2020 presidential election

Washington, September 28 (RHC)-- U.S. Special Counsel Jack Smith has filed a 180-page brief detailing Donald Trump's efforts to subvert the 2020 election and arguing his case in light of the Supreme Court decision this summer that granted Trump broad immunity against criminal charges.

Federal Judge Tanya Chutkan will decide whether the contents of the dossier will be made available to the public before the November presidential elections in the United States.

Radio Habana Cuba