

Hezbollah says it repelled Israeli troops invading southern Lebanon

Beirut, October 2 (RHC)-- In Lebanon, Hezbollah says its fighters have repelled incursions by Israeli forces attempting to invade southern Lebanon.

Israeli media reports at least two Israeli soldiers were killed and 18 others wounded near the Lebanese border town of Odaisseh.

Meanwhile, Israel's military ordered more residents of Beirut's southern suburbs to evacuate their homes.

The United Nations says more than 1 million people across Lebanon have been uprooted by Israel's assault.
