

Dozens murdered in Gaza as Israel bombs mosque, school and homes on first anniversary of genocidal war of aggression

Gaza City, October 7 (RHC)-- Israel's military has ordered hundreds of thousands of Palestinians to evacuate their homes or face death, as it launches a fresh ground offensive in the northern Gaza Strip.

The latest mass evacuation order came on the first anniversary of the start of Israel's brutal assault on Gaza following Hamas's surprise attack on October 7th.

Over the weekend, at least 26 Palestinians were killed after Israeli forces attacked a mosque and a school sheltering displaced people in Deir al-Balah.

Elsewhere, at least nine children were among 17 people killed when Israel's military bombed the Jabaliya refugee camp. Many residents were unable or unwilling to leave their homes.

Local resident Um Ahmed Fadous said: "I am staying here. Where else would I go? I want to die here. As long as they say that evacuation is forbidden, where will I go? We are staying. If they want us to die, so be it! ... And I suffer from osteoarthritis. Where do I go?"
