

Cuba's support for Belize's progress highlighted

Image not found or type unknown

Mai praised the permanence of Cuban collaboration in the field of health for 34 years.
Photo: Archive/Cuban Diplomatic Missions of Cuba

Havana, October 12 (RHC)-- The director general of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade of Belize, Amalia Mai highlighted Cuba's support to her country.

Mai thanked and highlighted the Cuban support in several areas of the economy and society, at the Conference of International Partners of Strategic Alliances, which took place on October 10 and 11, sponsored by the Government of Belize.

During his speech, he praised “Cuba's traditional support for the training of human resources”, according to the text sent by the Cuban embassy in Belize and published by the Foreign Ministry of the island.

He also praised “the permanence of collaboration in the field of health for 34 years, in terms of public health of our people”.

He also highlighted “the important work carried out by the Henry Reeve Brigade during the Covid-19 pandemic” in different regions of the country with complex situations.

Under the theme “Unlocking climate finance and disaster risk financing for sustainable development”, the event was inaugurated by the Prime Minister of Belize, John Briceño.

In addition to Amalia Mai's speech, Francis Fonseca, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Foreign Trade, Education, Culture, Science and Technology, gave a keynote address.

The Cuban ambassador to Belize, María Caridad Balaguer, participated in the meeting together with ministers of state, general directors, other diplomats, officials of international organizations and numerous specialists in the topics discussed, according to the Foreign Ministry's press release. (Source: Prensa Latina)

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/367321-cubas-support-for-belizes-progress-highlighted>

Radio Habana Cuba