Cuban youth will march today in solidarity with Palestine

Havana, Oct 14 (RHC) Young Cubans and the general population will condemn the genocide committed by the Israeli government for more than a year on the Palestinian civilian population and other countries in the Middle East.

The demonstration called by the Young Communist League will denounce US complicity in the Zionist onslaught, which has caused over 42,000 deaths in Gaza, mostly women and children, and over two thousand in Lebanon.

Participants will march from Martian Forge to Anti-Imperialist Tribune in Havana, according to organizers, who define Israeli aggression against Palestine as one of the worst genocides humanity has seen. (Source: Prensa Latina)
