Cuba and Ethiopia asses possibilities of commercial collaboration

Havana, Oct 25 (RHC) The charge d'affaires OF the Cuban embassy to Ethiopia, Natalys Dinza, AND the President OF the Chamber of Commerce and Sectoral Associations of Ethiopia, Sebsib Abafira, discussed today the potential for collaboration between the two countries.

Abafira emphasized the friendly relations between the two governments and expressed the desire to expand cooperation in various fields. Dinza, in turn, invited the Ethiopian chamber to participate in the 40th Havana International Fair, which will take place in November, as an opportunity to explore new avenues for bilateral cooperation.

The meeting was also attended by Kenenisa Lemi Debela, Secretary General of the local organization, who assured his participation at the fair. (Source: PL)
