

United Nations to condemn blockade against Cuba again

Image not found or type unknown

Havana, October 26 (RHC)-- Bruno Rodriguez Parrilla, member of the Political Bureau and head of Foreign Relations, stressed this Saturday that at the proposal of Cuba, Resolution 78/7 of the United Nations General Assembly will be discussed on Tuesday, October 29th and Wednesday the 30th, in New York.

On his Instagram account, the Cuban foreign minister stated that the world will once again overwhelmingly condemn the U.S. blockade against Cuba.

And precisely as part of the activities against this hostile U.S. policy, the streets of New York will host the exhibition "Cuba is Not Alone" -- with 50 works by artists from more than 15 countries, Rodriguez Parrilla reported on his X account.

This is, he explained, an initiative of the Artists vs Blockade Movement whose main objective is to demand the end of the blockade against Cuba and its exclusion from the list of States sponsoring terrorism.

“On the initiative of the Artists vs Blockade Movement, the #CubalsNotAlone exhibition will be displayed on the streets of New York, with 50 works by artists from more than 15 countries. The demand is to end the blockade against Cuba and to remove those sponsoring terrorism from the list.” [SOURCE: ACN]

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/368342-united-nations-to-condemn-blockade-against-cuba-again>

Radio Habana Cuba