Beit Lahiya, October 30 (RHC)-- Israel's military has again bombed residential buildings in Gaza's Beit Lahiya, killing at least 19 Palestinians, as civilians in the besieged northern town searched for survivors in the aftermath of an earlier Israeli raid that killed nearly 100 people.

The latest Israeli bombing, late on Tuesday night, hit several homes belonging to the Al Louh family, according to the Palestinian Civil Defence in Gaza.

The attack came less than a day after Israel's military bombed a five-storey building belonging to the Abu Nasr family in Beit Lahiya, killing at least 93 people and wounding dozens more. The Ministry of Health in Gaza said at least 25 children were among the dead.

Israel's military said it was "looking into the reports of the strike," while its main ally, the United States, called the attack "horrifying."

The United Nations Human Rights Office (OHCHR) said it was "appalled" by the bombing, describing it one of the deadliest single attacks in Gaza in nearly three months. The UN's humanitarian agency (OCHA) said the assault on the Abu Nasr family home was among seven "mass casualty incidents" in Gaza in the past week alone.
